Accommodation for all Tastes

The island offers a very high standard of various accommodation types that perfectly match the unique requirements of all travellers with different budgets.

Many couples choose to hold their special day or event at a high-star hotel or luxury resort, where their guests can enjoy the celebration (with the added convenience/ and the comfort) of a full holiday package. The standard of hotel facilities is excellent across the island, with most offering a mesmerising seaside setting, swimming pools and children's water attractions, spa and leisure facilities, in-house daytime and evening entertainment, and a multitude of dining and drinking options - including generous all-inclusive packages.

For a more private home-away-from-home, a large array of self-catering apartments can offer a sense of freedom and a simple and cost-effective base to explore from, whilst deluxe villas ooze exclusivity and space with private gardens, pools and barbecue areas for entertaining. This type of accommodation offers a personal approach that is equally appealing for couples, families and larger groups who prefer to take charge of their own catering and sleeping arrangements.

For the traveller who likes to get out and about and be immersed in the local scene, the eclectic choice of a city or boutique hotel combines the comfort and facilities of serviced accommodation with the flexibility to make every day different. Each city offers a wealth of dining, drinking, entertainment and cultural options that can easily be explored when staying at a smaller hotel.

For a truly authentic experience, agrotourism establishments in traditional villages and mountain communities are surrounded by the tranquillity and beauty of nature and are often traditional build old houses that have been restored to their former glory and furnished with period pieces. This type of accommodation offers an unmistakable sense of being a part of the local culture and oozes Cypriot hospitality, introducing local customs, and gastronomy, while offering all the advantages of a 'homely' feel.

ceremonies,
blessings and unions

SACRED CEREMONIES

Every wedding is as unique as the two hearts it will unite, and Cyprus offers a range of different and beautifully bespoke options that reflect your devotion, including civil ceremonies/partnerships, church marriages, religious blessings and vow renewals.

Religious ceremonies and blessings can take place in churches, chapels or other places of worship across the island. Many hotels also have their own private chapels - often overlooking the beach or sea. Couples must first apply for a Marriage License at the Municipal Offices before making the necessary arrangements for a religious ceremony or blessing with a registered Minister of the religion of their choice.

Civil unions can take place directly at the Municipal Offices where the Marriage License is obtained, or in a myriad of other settings by securing permission. Options include the classic backdrop of sand and sea; on public or hotel beaches, piers, harbours and yachts. More unusual or historic options are also available, including traditional buildings; gardens and golf courses; ancient ruins and castles; wineries, galleries and museums – or any other location that is desired with the appropriate arrangements, for which the Municipal Offices or a professional Wedding Coordinator can assist with.

PICTURE-PERFECT

The seductive scenery of Cyprus is magnificently made for memorable wedding photography that can be woven into the big day - without the need for a separate studio session.

The island's stunning, natural beauty spots inspire photo opportunities in abundance. Breathtaking vistas unfold across golden beaches with crystal-clear seawaters; rugged rock formations; countryside bursting with blooms; mountains green with forest, and ripe orchards, olive groves and vineyards. And with some of the most captivating sunsets in the region, the fiery skies always add a dramatic flair to any shot.

Whilst the Mediterranean landscape is a favourite for many happy couples from abroad, there are also alternative options that can infuse authentic charm into photography. Capturing elements of the island's traditions and ancient history will create a precious keepsake of your special celebration in Cyprus, and there is no shortage of fascinating archaeological ruins, old architecture, traditional buildings, museums and rustic villages to strike a passionate pose at.

A SEND-OFF IN STYLE

One of the most enjoyable traditions of a wedding is the so-called 'last night of freedom'. Whether they are called 'hen and stag do's' or 'bachelor and bachelorette parties', the aim remains the same; for the couple to spend a truly memorable time with their family and friends before they embark on their life as newlyweds.

Cyprus is renowned for offering a good time around the clock. Pre-wedding fun can be tailored to suit the preferences of the couple and their travel party and always promises to be an electrifying or elating experience.

For those seeking the epic night out, the pulsating pubs, bars and nightclubs are waiting to be discovered within the eclectic old streets; the many town squares; bustling entertainment districts and even directly on the beach! Some of the trendiest venues attract big name DJs and well-known entertainment acts, earning them consistent rankings among the best nightspots in the world.

For something away from wilder times, elegant shared meals or themed days out will set the tone for the main event. Whether the group preference is for something relaxing - a day at the spa, a round of golf or a boat trip, or something more thrilling - like a jeep safari or trying extreme water sports, it is certain that the bonding experience will be one to treasure for a lifetime.

More information on what you can enjoy across the island can be found on the respective websites of each region.

NEWLYWED ADVENTURES

Basking in the sun's warm glow on one of the many golden, sandy beaches is always pure pleasure, whilst the large number of high-star hotels and luxury resorts offer an oasis of relaxation around their swimming pools. Combining this with pampering spa treatments and gentle activities such as sunrise yoga and barefoot walks on the sand is a delectable recipe for a honeymoon filled with quality couple time.

Couples hungry for explorations and adventure will find that the island is just waiting to be discovered. From its vibrant cities to its quaint villages and traditional mountain communities, each region has unique character and charm. Days can easily be filled with sightseeing at archaeological sites, ancient monuments and museums filled with magic and mythology. The island's favourable weather and natural beauty invites active pursuits in fresh air such as hiking, cycling, team and water sports. Fun can be found in the many theme, water and animal parks, as well as in the sparkling night-life comprised of drinking, dining and dancing. More mellow moments can be savoured at the vineyards, wineries and groves. And for a real flavour of Cyprus, the traditional handicrafts, folkloric entertainment and local cuisine will ensure that the island remains a fond memory always.

AFFIRMATION OF LOVE

Many couples who tie the knot in Cyprus find that the island endures in their affections and becomes a cherished annual anniversary visit or the perfect place to renew vows. Equally so, couples who always longed for their island wedding affair chose to reaffirm their commitment in the sunshine setting of their dreams.

Saying 'I Still Do' is an intimate moment that is made ever more poignant when the destination is as idyllic as Cyprus and the day is flawlessly tailored to reflect the continuing love and bond that is shared.

Just like weddings or other romantic celebrations can range in size and style, vow renewal or partnership affirmations can be a small, select and cosy occasion, or the opportunity to bring together the couple's most beloved family and friends for a lavish reception at one of the grand ballrooms or hotel halls. And when all the frills of top-class entertainment, banqueting and partying are added, it is guaranteed to be an event that will remain etched in the hearts of all.

ROMANTIC BREAKS

CELEBRATIONS EXTEND TO HOLIDAYS

One of the main allures of holding a dream wedding or romantic celebration in Cyprus is the opportunity to combine the big day with a sunshine break - for both the radiant couple and the whole travel party.

With an endless array of experiences to enjoy before or after the happy event, all the elements are in place for an unforgettable holiday, and everyone will find something to love about Cyprus!

Sand and Sea

An island encompassed by golden sands and clear, blue sea is naturally one that offers all the pleasures of the coast. Cyprus has a high number of awarded Blue Flag organised beaches. These offer a range of conveniences and facilities, such as sun loungers and parasols, WC, showers and changing rooms, lifeguard towers, disabled facilities, water sports, sand playgrounds and kiosks of food, drink and essential supplies.

With ideal sea temperatures and an absence of dangerous marine life, one of the top activities to enjoy in the water is diving, and the island is home to many fantastic dive sites and artificial reefs, including the Zenobia wreck – one of the world's top five wreck dives.

Other sea sports can also be mastered, including kitesurfing, SUP, jet skiing, paragliding, sailing, yachting, fishing and rides on fun inflatables. For those who prefer to enjoy the water without getting wet, there is no shortage of boat rides and themed cruises that are offered as short, half-day, full-day or evening options.

Gastronomy

The Mediterranean Diet is considered to be one of the healthiest and is simply bursting with fresh produce and full flavours. The local cuisine typically incorporates olive oil, pulses and legumes, local cheeses, cured and stewed meats, seafood, village breads, Cypriot potatoes, grains such as buckwheat, fresh salad vegetables, seasonal fruits and sticky desserts.

For a real taste of Cyprus, the traditional taverns where the famous 'meze' meal is served are always a winning bet. Comprised of many, small dishes the meze is perfect for sharing and for trying out the different local specialties. Or, why not try the well-balanced and nutritious 'Cyprus Breakfast'? For the freshest fish, the harbours are the place to head for. Here the morning's catch of the day is served in quaint restaurants overlooking the peaceful, bobbing fishing boats.

Other than the local cuisine, the island offers an enormous selection of international and fusion dining options. Elegant, award-winning fine cuisine can be savoured amidst glamour and glitz, and casual or quick dining is served in modern cafes and quirky bistros with many popular, international franchises also available.

Viticulture

As the home of Commandaria – the world's oldest named wine still in production – Cyprus has a longstanding love affair with viticulture. Oenophiles and wine enthusiasts will delight in discovering the history, grape varieties and vintages of the island in the most picturesque surroundings of the rural vineyards.

The winemaking industry is primarily centred in the mountain communities of the Lemesos (Limassol) district. Here, the villages continue the tradition with passion and pride and jointly celebrate this shared heritage with annual festivals where their winemaking is presented to much merriment.

Aside from the winemaking villages, there are a series of wineries that meander through quaint countryside and range from the more large-scale to boutique and family-owned. Most openly welcome visitors to their premises and will offer guided tours of the harvest and wine-making process, as well as a tasting of their unique, select vintages.

A network of self-guided, signposted wine routes created by The Deputy Ministry of Tourism make for a great day out and is easy and interesting to follow. The routes travel from the high, sun-kissed southern slopes of the Troodos mountain range, to a stunning stretch of valleys between Lemesos (Limassol) and Pafos, and the rural areas of Larnaka and Lefkosia (Nicosia), with quaint villages, wineries and wine museums to discover along the way.

Traditional Experiences

Cyprus is steeped in tradition and many of its authentic pastimes are still practised to this day and safeguarded with their inclusion on the UNESCO List of Intangible Cultural Heritage, including that of homemade food and handmade folkloric crafts.

Traditional pastimes include iconography, woodworking, basketry, silversmithing, lace making, pottery, copper and iron works... and more. The rural and mountainous villages typically each practise their own distinctive traditions with locals happy to showcase their skills at their workshops; often offering the opportunity for a hands-on experience.

Culinary traditions include the handmaking of local delicacies using original methods and family recipes passed down for generations. Some of the most popular products are local cheeses like Halloumi and Anari; cured meats infused with wine and spices; crusty village bread and rusks; delectable treats made of carob and grape; preserved spoon sweets from local fruit, vegetables, peel and rind; sugar-powdered Cyprus delights with a romantic link to Goddess Aphrodite, and many more enticing products made with love and heritage. Organised cooking demonstrations and workshops are also available.

Authentic food-themed activities can be experienced with the tasty reward of enjoying the fruits of your labour at the end of the day. The cluster of beekeeping and honey producing villages offer beekeeping and honey making/bottling excursions and tours in the mountains, where foraging for wild herbs and edibles is also available. Many orchards and estates welcome visitors to get stuck in during harvest time; picking or collecting grapes, almonds, carobs, olives and other locally-grown produce, surrounded by nature's finest canvas.

History and Culture

With over 11,000 years of rich history, Cyprus is a vibrant time-capsule of sites, monuments and museums, where ancient stories of the many different civilisations that passed through the island can be felt. The Antiquities Department carefully maintains castles, mosaics, ruins, Venetian bridges, sites of worship, and other significant sites that are open to the general public, whilst professional tourist guides are available for a more in-depth look into the past.

A series of self-guided cultural routes has been created by the Deputy Tourism of Ministry encompassing wine, religion and history, as well as downloadable audio guides for some of the island's most significant landmarks.

A year-round cultural calendar of music, theatre, dance, exhibitions and themed festivals by local performers and international touring troupes ensures that there is always something interesting to see or watch. The island is also home to many national, European and international competitions and festivals of the arts, attracting artists and performers from all over the world. The event diaries of the local tourism boards are continually updated on all the exciting happenings taking place in each region.

Shopping Therapy

A spot of retail therapy comes with the best of all worlds when shopping in Cyprus. Each city has a bustling town centre lined with an attractive mix of handicraft stores, independent boutiques, high-street brands and designer labels. Modern, air-conditioned malls offer everything under one roof for a full day of browsing or buying and can be found in larger towns.

Savvy shoppers are sure to know that Cyprus excels in specialist items that are competitively priced and well-made. Goods made of leather, gold and silver, and unique pieces of pottery, basketry, icons and wood are all ideal souvenirs to pick up whilst visiting the island.

Cosmopolitan Lifestyle

As a full member of the European Union, Cyprus is a modern and progressive destination that offers a cosmopolitan lifestyle filled with good times.

The locals enjoy socialising as part of their daily routine and the island has a thriving 'coffee culture' and a vibrant leisure and entertainment culture. People mingle along bustling promenades; venues are filled to the brim with patrons savouring al fresco drinking or dining, and the pulsating nightlife is legendary for its club scene.

There is always a festival or celebration to revel in, and a jubilant atmosphere of 'life is for living'. Whether it is a family sharing ice-cream during an evening stroll by the sea; the trend-set crowd grooving to the big name DJ playing at the hippest nightspot, or connoisseurs appreciating a night of theatre followed by a fine meal and a nightcap at an exclusive wine bar... Cyprus simply simmers with good spirit.

And with a favourable climate, the vibe is never dampened or hampered by inclement weather, and all that the island has to offer can be embraced on a 24/7 basis.

Adventure and Active Pursuits

As an island where much of life is enjoyed outdoors, adventure and active pursuits are popular and plentiful.

The level of sporting amenities is very high, with awarded, luxury golf courses and integrated golfing resorts and other specialist, state-of-the-art facilities for playing, training or competing, including for football, volleyball, tennis, handball, clay shooting and more. Sand courts are also widely used for beach versions of favourite sports.

Out in the open, a network of city, coastal and mountain trails are a boon for cycling, walking and hiking amidst some of the island's most stunning natural landscapes. Designated routes and trails are also available and are well signposted with downloadable maps to facilitate tours.

International, major events such as car rallies, marathons and sailing regattas attract both participants and spectators from across the world and take place throughout the year.

More thrilling and extreme adventures are emerging on the island for a real adrenaline rush. Thanks to the favourable weather conditions, stunning rugged backdrops, complex rock types, and the quality, variety and diversity of its climbing routes (both traditional and sport), rock climbing and orienteering are gaining ground, whilst a variety of different jeep safaris are on offer and extreme sports such as Kitesurfing and free diving come with a real 'kick'.

Children's Activities

Cyprus is a family-friendly and safe destination that is filled with fun things to do for even the youngest of visitors! Naturally, the sand, sea and swimming pools are always a hit, but off of the beach, there is plenty more to enjoy.

Memorable days out for the whole family can be created from a wide choice of activities and child-orientated places of interest. All across the island, different and entertaining options abound: themed parks; animal attractions; funfairs; museums; water parks; arcades; play places; parks; cinemas; bowling alleys; mini-golf; escape rooms; malls; interactive workshops; children's theatre, and many interesting, insightful and educational cultural sights.

A large number of family-friendly cafes and restaurants welcome young patrons and cater for them with special children's menus and facilities, including playgrounds or toys on their premises.

Nature

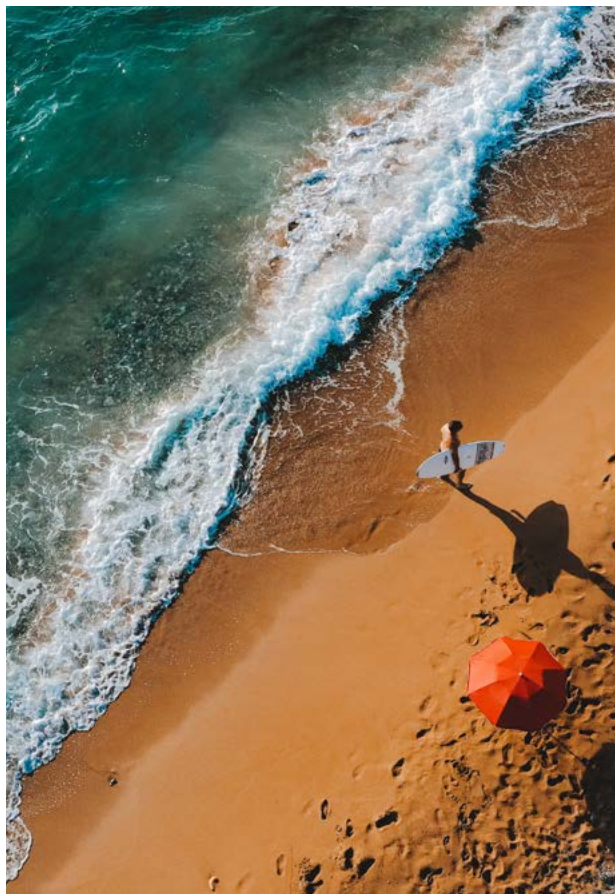

Step out into nature and discover the island's beautiful flora and fauna which extends far beyond its coastline.

The Troodos mountain range rises up majestically and is a green and cool oasis that is home to pine forests, crystal waterfalls, and rare and endemic wildlife. Designated nature trails acquaint visitors with the many different species of plant and animal life and the crisp, fresh air is always a tonic.

The island also has the unique Natural Reserve of the Akamas Peninsula and several other protected National Forest Parks, caves, gorges and nature reserves, all of high significance to the eco-system and microclimate. At its fresh and salt-water lakes, a variety of rare species choose Cyprus for migrating and breeding and the cooler months are a birdwatching haven.

PREMIUM CONCIERGE 'DESTINATION' EVENTS

Fairy tales and love stories come in all shapes, sizes and styles, including those that take romantic celebrations to a whole new level of opulence.

For couples who desire a premium event that is refined, spectacular or showstopping, Cyprus offers concierge planning that takes care of the finest details to ensure an inimitable gathering that has all the hallmarks of glamour, luxury and prestige.

Follow in real footsteps

As an island that has witnessed the love affairs, passions and nuptials of ancient gods and goddesses, and historical kings and queens, Cyprus is a natural destination for events that are befitting of royalty.

The Ancient Greek Goddess of Love and Beauty, Aphrodite, wooed her lover Adonis in Pafos; Richard the Lionheart married Berengaria of Navarre at Limassol castle in 1191 and crowned her Queen of England; Venetian noblewoman Caterina Cornaro became the last monarch of Cyprus when she married King James II on the island in 1472, and legend tells that the Medieval hero Digenis Akritas fell madly in love with Queen Rigena and was so smitten by her beauty that he completed numerous feats to win her heart.

These divine and regal unions are immortalised at the many monuments of the island - from majestic castles and grand towers, to elegant stone bridges and ancient ruins. For the more discerning couple seeking a unique and esteemed celebration, these historically invaluable sites can be used for weddings and other events exclusively with permission granted by the Antiquities Department.

Contemporary extravaganza

For more resplendent and ornate celebrations, the island's magnificent five-star plus hotels, resorts, estates and manors host gold-plated functions where all of life's most upscale elements combine. Banquets unfold amidst tastefully lavish décor... gourmet cuisine and fine champagne are impeccably and discretely served... and every request is catered for to unparalleled standards of sophistication.

Unique proposals can also be crafted by experienced event planners for exquisitely exceptional dream days. From stunning yachts, beachside mansions, wineries and olive groves, to more unusual or acquired tastes for props, entertainment, location, the couple's entrance - or even a dramatic experience - the island's professionals can offer deluxe, customised services that enhance every finishing touch. No matter how impressive or excessive the vision, premium destination events on Aphrodite's isle exceed even the heights of Cyprus' royal romances.
